

Lexia® Learning and Wilson College are Making it Possible

Now you can earn graduate credit for LETRS® (Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling), a course of study that bridges deep, meaningful research into practical classroom success. These graduate credit hours can be applied toward a master's degree at an accredited university.

LETRS provides educators with the background, depth of knowledge, and tools to teach language and literacy skills to students in grades K–3 or older students who struggle with reading.

Four graduate-level sections are offered, each for three credits.

1. EDU 575: Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling (Units 1 and 2)
2. EDU 576: Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling (Units 3 and 4)
Course EDU 575 is a prerequisite.
3. EDU 577: Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling (Units 5 and 6)
Courses EDU 575 and EDU 576 are prerequisites.
4. EDU 578: Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling (Units 7 and 8)
Courses EDU 575, EDU 576, and EDU 577 are prerequisites.

Any two courses may be transferred into the Masters of Education Program at Wilson College. For more information, visit wilson.edu/master-education.
